THE THOMAS PHEASANT COLLECTION

THE THOMAS PHEASANT COLLECTION

Renowned interior designer Thomas Pheasant offers his first collection for McGuire. The 19-piece collection exhibits the sculptural line, symmetry and scale synonymous with his traditional designs, yet the individual silhouettes reflect a decidedly contemporary approach using McGuire's signature materials. By working with an intriguing mix of rattan, rattan core, leather, cast bronze, glass and stone, Thomas Pheasant offers a collection of remarkable depth.

Inspired by the organic beauty of tree bark, Mr. Pheasant captured this natural patterning in the hand-cast bronze of the collection's table frames, and repeated it in the front legs of the lounge seating. A warm patina tempers the brilliance of the bronze, softening it to beautifully complement the rattan, leather, stone, and glass. It is this bronze that acts as a subtle, recurring theme, unifying the collection.

The collection's dining chairs are sleekly designed for comfort and versatility. The lounge chairs are sensual and architectural; a dramatic convergence of lines emphasizes their generous depth. A sculptural table series juxtaposing cast bronze, Halila limestone and glass, completes the collection.

The Thomas Pheasant Collection is an exceptional articulation of John and Elinor McGuire's original vision, marrying a tradition of excellence with a passion for innovation.
